The Astronaut connection:

From 1981-1990 John trained Shuttle flight crews for their "space walks" and developed tools to prepare astronauts psychologically for space flight.

During the 1990's he provided technical direction for NASA's Space Shuttle display system and the Military Space Plane.

In 2001, John pioneered the use of comedy as a tool for Astronauts to "thrive" in space and most recently developed human factors design requirements for NASA's Crew Exploration Vehicle (CEV) taking humans to the Moon and Mars.

A resident of Houston John earned a B.S. and M.A. in Psychology from Texas A & M University and the University of Houston Clear Lake respectively.
